I, Senior Border Patrol Agent Marco Miranda declare under penalty of Perjury, the following is true and correct:

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that this complaint is based upon the statements of the apprehending Border Patrol Agent, F. Gonzalez, that the Defendant was found and arrested on December 28, 2007 east of the Calexico, California Port of Entry.

BPA Gonzalez was performing his assigned Border Patrol duties approximately .5 miles east of the Calexico, California Port of Entry. BPA Gonzalez observed an individual, later identified as Eduardo ROMERO-Saldana, climb over the United States/Mexico International Boundary Fence. BPA Gonzalez identified himself as a Border Patrol Agent and questioned ROMERO as to his immigration status to be in the United States. ROMERO stated that he is a citizen of Mexico and illegally in the United States. ROMERO was placed under arrest.

Record checks revealed that an Immigration Judge ordered ROMERO deported to Mexico from the United States on January 6, 2006. Record checks also revealed that ROMERO was sentenced and convicted for First Degree Burglary.

At approximately 0733 hours, ROMERO was advised of his Miranda Rights in the Spanish language by Agent R. Torres and witnessed by Agent J. Macallister. ROMERO acknowledged understanding his rights and was willing to answer questions. ROMERO stated that he did not have any legal documents that would allow him to work in or reside in the United States. ROMERO also stated that he last entered the United Stated by jumping the border fence. ROMERO was questioned regarding his deportation and ROMERO said that he voluntary returned to Mexico. There is no evidence ROMERO has sought or received permission from the Attorney General or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to re-enter the United States.

Executed on December 29, 2007 at 0845.

Senior Border Patrol Agent

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of 1 page, I find Probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on December 28, 2007 in violation of Title 8, United States Code 1326.
